

STATE TEAMS

Queensland Teams

1. SELECTION OF TEAMS

- a) The composition of teams shall be decided by the Association and shall be selected to comprise at least the minimum and at most, the maximum player numbers to compete in accordance with the relevant tournament rules.
- b) QBA may in its discretion refuse to authorise any affiliated player to participate in any championship, tournament, carnival or competition in which a Queensland team is participating if he/she has declared himself/herself unavailable for selection in such Queensland Team.
- c) The Association may in its sole discretion, not accept a player's selection, if that player is not in good standing with the Association or any of its member Associations and/or Clubs, or if the player does not comply with the nomination process specified in Clause c) of the Selection Guidelines.

Selection is contingent on written acceptance of these rules.

Expenses

- a) Unless otherwise decided for specific occasions, the player shall be responsible for all their own expenses (travel and accommodation, meals etc.) to represent Queensland at Australian Championships.

Travel

- a) QBA will issue accounts to each team member who in turn will pay the account direct to QBA within the specified time.
- b) All team members must travel (where possible) as a team to the Carnival and return.
- c) Unpaid accounts will be charged interest at bank rates.

Team Captain (Open Team Only)

- a) The appointment of a Captain shall be the responsibility of the selectors. When on tour the Captain, with the Coach, shall be responsible for any tactical decisions in respect of the actual playing of the match.

Authority of Managers

- a) The manager of Queensland Teams shall be appointed by the QBA Board and have the ultimate authority to suspend any player/s from any further participation in the relevant event if/or when considered necessary.
- b) Suspension will be considered if the player/s who in the manager's opinion is/are guilty of any conduct prejudicial to the good name of QBA. In the event of any suspension, the QBA Board must be notified immediately.

Selection Dates for Queensland Teams

The dates for selection of Queensland teams shall be decided by QBA.

Non Attendance at Team Practices

- a) Team members are required to attend all team practices unless prevented by illness, in which case a medical certificate is required. Failure to attend a practice or produce a medical certificate will result in the player/s being called upon by the Management Committee to show why the player/s should not be excluded from the team. The practice fee will also be payable. Under special circumstances players may apply to QBA for exemption from attendance requirements.

Practice Fees

- a) Practice fees, payable by all players, are to be determined by venue and shuttle costs.

Team Selection Panel Whilst on Tour

- a) Open Team: The panel shall consist of the Coach, Captain and one other selected by the Selectors after the announcement of the team.
- b) Junior Teams: The panel shall consist of Coach and Manager.

Dress and Uniform

- a) Team members must at all times during the period of their selection be correctly attired both on and off the court.

The Official State uniform

- a) Team Members: tracksuit, top to be embroidered with the QBA Logo.
- b) Manager and Coach: tracksuit the same as that worn by team members.

Queensland Badminton Association Logo

- a) The QBA logo shall be worn on the State Team tracksuit tops and playing shirts only.

Notification of Selected Players

- a) Following the announcement of a State Team, the Secretary shall, within five (5) days, issue a written confirmation to each selected player and to include relevant rules from these policies. Written replies must be received by the Association Secretary within seven (7) days.

2. TEAM SELECTION GUIDELINES

Selection Panels

Selectors will be appointed by the Queensland Badminton Association (QBA) Board.
All State Teams shall be selected by the QBA Selectors Panel.

Process of Selection

- a) Selectors shall take into account results achieved at:
 - i) QBA sanctioned tournaments
 - ii) QBA sanctioned teams events, and
 - iii) Tournament results from the previous 6 months prior to the team nomination closing date.
- b) Selection shall be based on:
 - i) Performance
 - ii) Fitness
 - iii) Technique
 - iv) Sportsmanship
 - v) Participation at the majority of training, at both State, Association and Club levels
 - vi) Participation at tournaments prior to and following the team selection.
 - vii) Participation at local club and Association level fixtures and other local activities.
 - viii) A willingness to play all disciplines (singles, doubles and mixed).

- c) Players wishing to make themselves available for selection may nominate themselves. QBA will then have this nomination endorsed by their Member Association or Club.
- d) Selection may only be made from players nominated prior to the cut-off date specified by QBA Board when calling for nominations.
- e) The QBA Board reserves the right to add to the nominations when extenuating circumstances exist. The QBA Board will be the sole judge of 'extenuating circumstances'.
- f) Players wishing to make themselves available must be current financial members of the QBA through an Affiliated Club or Association prior to nominating themselves.
- g) A player's ranking shall have no influence on a player's selection.
- h) Selectors will recommend the selected team to the QBA Board, but shall retain the right to recommend that a team not be selected.
- i) Players wishing to nominate for a QLD team must have participated in the QLD Open/Graded/Junior Championships relevant to the player along with any other Open tournaments during the period.
- j) Players need to have demonstrated a willingness to play all disciplines in sanctioned Open tournaments within Australia. For QLD Championship events players should also participate in all disciplines (singles, doubles and mixed).
- k) Players nominating for the QLD Open Team should be graded as Open or A Grade.
- l) All players selected to participate at Open Level, Under 19 and any Under 17 athletes that are 16 or over are required to complete the Australian Sports Anti-Doping Authority Training (<http://elearning.asada.gov.au>) that may involve either online training and/or a course. Evidence for completion of this training will be requested.
- m) Players who are members of the National Squad, and as a consequence are living interstate or overseas, will be required to provide details of their performance in recent tournaments, and their training regime to the State Team Coach. These should be verified by the National Coach or other appropriate Badminton Australia Authority.

- n) Players living interstate, will be required to provide details of recent tournament performances, and/or training regime, in order to be considered for selection.
- o) Junior athletes must make themselves available for inclusion in the team of their current age group before being considered to play in a higher age group. For example, to be considered for the Open Team the player must make themselves available to play in the relevant state junior team within age group and one higher.

3. QUEENSLAND BADMINTON SELECTORS PANEL

Objectives

The objectives of the Selection Committee shall be: -

- i) To select teams to represent Queensland at National and Interstate events.
- ii) To appoint a Captain for each representative team.

Administration

Each Selection Committee shall be appointed by QBA and shall comprise a Chairperson and not less than 2 other selectors with the widest possible knowledge of senior and junior players throughout the State.

The panel shall be appointed for a period determined by the QBA.

- a) The Chairperson shall be responsible for:
 - i) The co-ordination of all matters relating to the selection of all State Teams.
 - ii) Liaison with the QBA
 - iii) Ensuring the implementation of QBA Policy in relation to team selection.
 - iv) Responsible for notifying players of the date, time and venue of selection trials.

The selection panel will be appointed by the QBA Board on an as needs basis. Players making themselves available for selection will be ineligible to be appointed a selector.

Panel of Selectors

- a) A panel of selectors will be appointed to select teams under the supervision of the Chairperson.
- b) Collectively the panel will select the required representative team. Where the panel of selectors cannot come to a unanimous decision in relation to selection of the team, the Chairperson shall refer such issues to the QBA Board. Where such a situation exists, the QBA Board will make the necessary decisions in selecting the team.

- c) The selection must be based on assessments of the players' ability to meet the requirements identified in the Guidelines for Team Selection.
- d) The Chairperson will provide to the QBA Board details of the team selection for ratification and announcement by the QBA Board.
- e) The QBA Board must be informed of all correspondence, decisions and arrangements made by the panel.

4. DUTIES OF TEAM MANAGER

General Organisation

The manager shall assume responsibility for the team from the time the team is approved by the Board of Management until the completion of the series. In all events in which Queensland teams are participating as a QBA selected team, the manager's scope and period of authority shall be deemed to include the full period of such event.

Areas of Administration

The manager shall, in conjunction with QBA, be responsible for arranging and booking team travel and accommodation for inter-state (or overseas) tournaments. Where circumstances dictate, these arrangements may be made prior to the announcement of the selected team.

The manager shall, in conjunction with the team coach, be responsible for:

- a) booking facilities for team training, and equipment for the team
- b) attend practice sessions and tournaments before team departs
- c) collect and/or arrange for all moneys and accounts to be sent to QBA.

Dress and Uniform
